TEACHERS STRIKE DAY - 29th MAY – NO CLASSES

Kia Ora and welcome to our weekly newsletter.

Just a reminder that tomorrow (Wednesday 29th May) our school and all the primary schools and colleges throughout New Zealand will be on strike, so there will be no classes or people on site to supervise your children.

Congratulations to the new Board of Trustees who have successfully put their hand up to support our school. I look forward to working with them in the future months.

Assembly next Friday 31st May is at 10am. It would be great to have lots of our parents and whanau there to celebrate with us.

Huntly Primary has come a long way in the last year. There are many more exciting changes to come with our new BOT and our Principal Peta-Maree.
